February 28, 1938.

IN REPLY REFER TO G.B.D.

The records show that one William H. Henderson, Private, Company "L", 62 Regiment Georgia Cavalry, Confederate States Army, was enlisted December 1, 1862, at Franklin, by Captain Barham.

This company appears to have been divided about February 17, 1864, and the within named man became a Private of Company "F", 6 (Dearing's) Regiment Confederate Cavalry.

This regiment was disbanded about April 20, 1864, and Company "F", last named organization, became Company "F", 24 Regiment Virginia Cavalry.

Company Muster Roll of Company "F", for September and October, 1864, dated November 15, 1864, last on file, shows him absent "detailed as wagoner by General Fearing".

He was surrendered by General Robert E. Lee and paroled April 25, 1865, at Office Provost Marshal, District of Eastern Virginia. Residence in Nansemond County, Virginia.
